V.W.H.S. — The Best!

ALMA MATER

O Van Wert High, the school we love,
Our true devotion we would prove;
Thy traditions gladly share,
Thy noble banner proudly bear.
In our work and in our play
We'll ever strive to lead the way.
School we love, on us rely,
The loyal youth of Van Wert High.

To our dear school whose praise we sing,
We, too, would new honors bring.
For the Scarlet and the Grey
We seek new laurels day by day.
In defeat or victory,
We'll stand as one in unity.
School we love, on us rely,
The loyal youth of Van Wert High.

FIGHT SONG

We're loyal to you, Van Wert High;
We're all staunch and true, Van Wert High;
We'll back you to stand
Against the best in the land
For we know you will win, Van Wert High.
Rah! Rah!

Go crashing ahead, Van Wert High;
Go smashing ahead, Van Wert High;
Our team is our faith protector,
Our boys will all expect
A victory from you, Van Wert High.
Rah! Rah!

Dedication

Mrs. Donald White

This year, the Excalibur is dedicated to Mrs. Donald White. Mrs. White teaches Latin I, II, III, and IV. Many students have had the privilege of having her in Latin class. She not only instructs the students in Latin, but also helps them with their English vocabulary by studying words derived from Latin. She also points out the number of our traditions, names, phrases, and customs which have classical origins. Mrs. White works very hard with the finalists to prepare them for the district-state scholarship tests, and her students invariably place high in both district and state.

In addition to teaching seven periods of Latin, Mrs. White is advisor to two organizations. The Junior Classical League, or Latin Club, puts on a Latin Banquet annually, under the direction of Mrs. White. Also, she is advisor to the National Honor Society and is in charge of its induction ceremonies. Although both of these organizations provide many headaches for Mrs. White, she meets them with a smile.

Besides being an outstanding teacher, Mrs. White always is pleasant and has a marvelous sense of humor. She is one of the most respected teachers in the high school.

For these and other reasons, we are happy and proud to dedicate this, the 1965 Excalibur, to Mrs. White.

Dede Connors and Larry Zielke present Mrs. White with the Excalibur dedication.

Mrs. White supervises the giving of a quiz.

Why Excalibur?

This yearbook of Van Wert High School is named the Excalibur. It is more than tradition which demands the uniformity of name from year to year. The Excalibur stands as a symbol for all of us to remember as we continue in the future.

The Excalibur was originally the sword given to King Arthur by the Lady of the Lake. This scabbard had magical powers. For, as long as Arthur retained it in his possession, he would suffer neither wound nor defeat. It was a source of strength to him, and he used it wisely in conquering his evil foes. However, by the treachery of Arthur's sister who substituted an imitation for the Excalibur, Arthur was dealt a mortal blow as he killed the traitor Mordred.

The Excalibur can be compared with one's high school education. Education arms one with knowledge to protect him from that poisonous influence, ignorance. An individual's education is a monument to the gradual maturity he gains as a high school student. His increasing stature as he gains knowledge from influences and experiences is significant and worthy of recognition. Thus, as we of the senior class dedicate this yearbook, we proudly name it the Excalibur.

A fad is defined by the dictionary as "a custom, style, etc. that many people are interested in for a short time; a passing fashion or craze." This year the biggest fad is madras everything from dresses, jackets, shirts, and skirts, to headbands, scarves, belts, and purses appeared in this material that was "guaranteed to bleed." Loafers for both girls and boys were "in." Also popular were textured and colored hose for girls. Other fads included: pin-striped shirts (with fruit loops, of course), triangle scarves, sling-back shoes, and false hairpieces

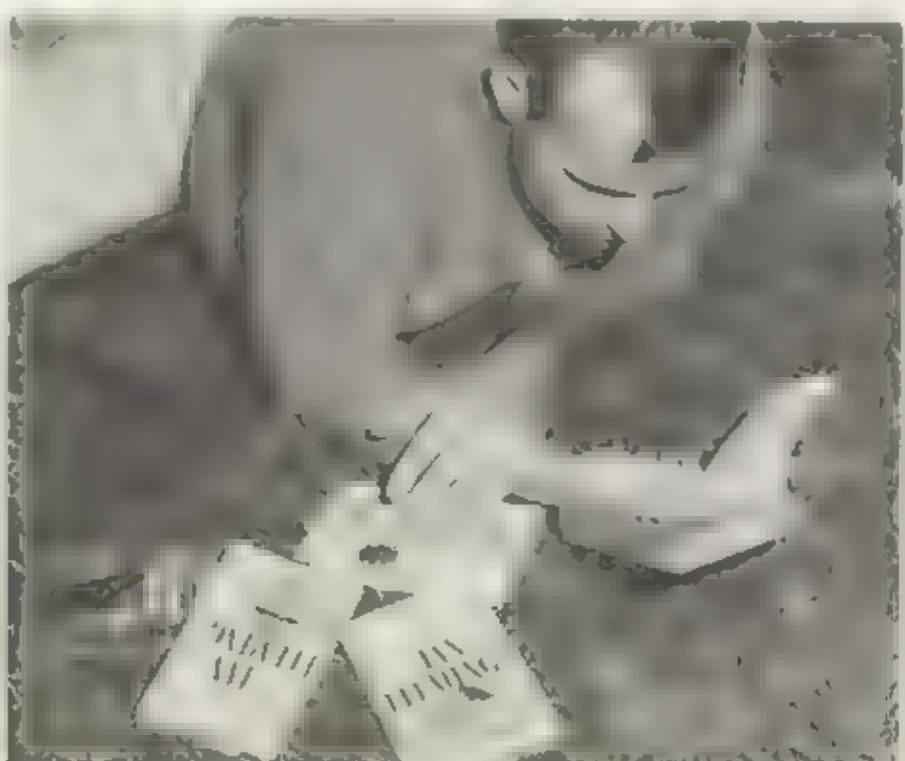

Bows, barrettes, and headbands were very popular this year

Dances

The origin of dancing is unknown but seems to date back to earliest man. The style of dancing done now is patterned after our present tempo—it is fast! The music has a definite beat and rhythm. Among the dances now popular are the jerk, the frug, the freddie, plus several others which are nameless.

Just to be different, the jokers invented their own dance.

Fast dancing requires agility and endurance!

Dance, dance, dance!

The jerk proved the most popular of the dances this year.

A new honor came to one of Van Wert's finest teachers this winter when "Our Coach", Gilbert E. Smith, was enshrined in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame at New Brunswick, New Jersey

Besides being presented with a plaque, Coach Smith's name and Van Wert High School will be engraved on a brick to be placed in the "Wall of Champions" at New Brunswick.

The wonderful record of Coach Smith thus will never be forgotten. Never to be forgotten also, especially by the hundreds of boys who played for him, will be the gentlemanly spirit of the true sportsman, then and still displayed by this man, our friend and teacher

ACADEMICS

The main purpose of high school is to gain an education that can prepare a person for what he may do in his later life. The elements that are influential in this learning process determine what kind of education a person receives. The teacher is probably the most predominant influence upon the underdeveloped mind of the student. He augments the student's perception with facts, philosophies, and experiences. The graduating senior is consequently unlike the entering freshman, for he has gained knowledge from the influences of his teachers. He has matured and gained stature as a human being.

Administration

The administrative head of the Van Wert City School System is Mr. S. F. Goedde. He has served as Superintendent of Schools for the past year. In 1963, Mr. Goedde was principal of the high school. He has handled all of the many and complicated problems which have arisen during the year with skill and efficiency. He has gained both the respect and the admiration of the students and faculty alike. After losing him last year, when he left to take a position in Wooster, Ohio, we are happy to have him back.

The principal of Van Wert High School is Mr. Vernon Johnson. This is his second year in this capacity. This administrative position carries many responsibilities which are complex and difficult to carry out. In addition to his duties as principal, Mr. Johnson also coached the tennis team, which had a very successful season this year.

English

The Freshman year in English is spent reviewing grammar, learning the Dewey Decimal System, studying Great Expeditions and the Odyssey, and learning vocabulary and spelling. Sophomores will remember Silas Marner, A Tale of Two Cities and Shakespeare's Julius Caesar. For the juniors, emphasis is placed upon American literature in the form of poetry, short stories, and the play "Our Town." Juniors begin their careers in writing as they are taught to write better paragraphs. College-bound seniors pursue their careers as writers in senior English with attempts in better writing. Seniors will remember the heroic epic, Beowulf, and Shakespeare's immortal Macbeth. Not to be forgotten is the Vocabulary for College Entrance.

Students desiring to study a foreign language are offered four years of French. The first year is concerned primarily with grammar and pronunciation. The second year students venture into reading French literature and studying French culture and history. The third and fourth years are concerned with obtaining fluent conversational French. The language lab is available to all students for study with tapes and recordings to aid in conversational French

ELENOR G. WHITE
Subject: Latin
Advisor to Latin Club, Honor Society

Although it is no longer a conversational language, Latin is far from a "dead" language. Its influence is evident everywhere. During the first year, students are introduced to both the language itself and its background, including history and mythology. The letters of Pliny the Younger describing the eruption of Mount Vesuvius and Julius Caesar's Commentaries on the Gallic Wars are translated by sophomores. Advanced "disciplini" read The Aeneid, Virgil's literary epic, Cicero's orations and letters, and excerpts from Ovid's Metamorphosis.

Home Economics

KATHERINE M BAKER
Subject Home Economics
Advisor to F H A

Good management is emphasized continually throughout the home economics curriculum. For example, at the freshman level, personal management is studied; at the sophomore level, family management is studied; at the junior level, control of working environment is emphasized; and at the senior level, the effective use of all resources is developed. In the above studies, the student gains education through actual experience, class discussions, demonstrations, field trips, study and research, and self-evaluation.

In the complex society of which all of us are a part, the home remains the key-stone which establishes our beliefs and values.

Besides providing practical experience, home economics increases a student's wardrobe

VIRGIL JOHNSON
Subject Home Economics
Advisor to F H A

Home economics is a vital part of the school curriculum. It is designed to promote growth of the student as an individual and as a member of his family, his community, the state, the nation, and the world. This development is facilitated not only through classroom activities but also through home experiments.

Seven areas of learning are developed progressively from grades nine through twelve, including child development, family relationships, clothing, food and nutrition, housing and home furnishings, management, and health and safety.

Six courses comprise the mathematics department of Van Wert High School. General math and review math, taken by freshmen and seniors respectively, are designed to review the students' knowledge of mathematical principles and to test their ability to perform fundamental operations. New methods and shortcuts are also learned by the students in these courses. Geometry, usually taken by sophomores, introduces them to Euclidian geometry and teaches them to solve problems through logic. In algebra I and II, students solve a variety of equations both algebraically and by graphing, work with formulas and exponents, and learn to use logarithms. The mathematics department not only prepares a student for a related career, but also helps him in his everyday life.

Since ancient times, man has entertained himself and others with music. Van Wert High School has three fine musical organizations—band, orchestra, and choir. These not only perform at school assemblies and athletic functions, but also give several concerts throughout the school year. These concerts are always enjoyed immensely by students and local citizens alike. Music theory is offered for students desiring to increase their knowledge of music. Music appreciation is designed to give the student a wide background of music for later life.

Industrial Arts

The boys of Van Wert High School have the opportunity to receive training in three areas of industrial arts: wood, shop metal, and drafting. They may use this training in their careers or just in versatile hobbies. In wood shop and metal shop, the boys work with many types of woods and metals as they make useful projects such as cedar chests, coffee tables, lamps, and tools. The boys are also taught safety in the shops. The drafting classes prepare boys for careers in engineering by teaching architecture and design.

Preparation for a career in the business world is the purpose of our Commercial Department. An introduction to typing and techniques of good typing are taught in Typing I. Accuracy and Speed are stressed in the second-year course, and many forms that are used in the business world are taught. Shorthand students learn an entirely new language as they learn a new form of writing. Neat and accurate records are important in bookkeeping. In office practice, future secretaries learn about all of the little and important things that take place in an office. Adding machines, stencils,

The business education curriculum is now being revised to include more courses pertaining to business education. These courses should start in the freshman year and continue in the sophomore and junior years. If these basic courses are completed in the first three years, advanced courses are offered in the senior year. This will also give more students an opportunity to enter the Cooperative Office Education program that will start next year.

ACTIVITIES

The social life of a Van Wert High School student is an exciting calendar of events that no one wants to miss. Among others, Homecoming, Snowball, and Prom all make the school year special. Social experiences are to be gained from such activities, for the student learns to meet and mingle with fellow teenagers. He also develops the social graces so important in the future relations with people. One gains much from these social activities while having many enjoyable and memorable times.

Julie was presented with the traditional roses, scepter and kisses by co-captains Bruce Butler and Vaughn Ferrell. Julie and her court

"Dino" Portrays a Problem of Today

"Why don't you answer me once? What are ya all the time making me answer my own questions?"

The annual all-school play was presented on November 20th and 21st by the students of Van Wert High School under the direction of Mr. Alvin Waldron. This year's selection was "Dino," the story of a seventeen year old juvenile delinquent. As the play opens, Dino has just returned home after four years in a reform school to which he was sent for his part in a murder. This period of adjustment is crucial because Dino must decide whether to turn again to crime and take revenge on the world for his misfortunes, or to change his ways and try to live a good life. By the influence of his parole officer, Mr. Mandel, and his psychotherapist, Mr. Sheridan, and with the encouragement of Shirley, a new acquaintance who becomes very special to him, Dino chooses the right road. As the play closes, Dino is making plans with Mr. Sheridan to help his younger brother Tony, who, without proper guidance soon, would follow his brother's earlier footsteps. The quality of acting was superb, and contributed greatly in making this year's play a fine production. The audiences were large and very receptive, making the play "Dino" a tremendous success.

Latin Banquet Is Distinctively Roman

The Van Wert chapter of the Junior Classical League held its annual Latin Banquet on May 17. After the traditional feeding of the chickens, the freshman slaves served the honored guests everything "ab ova ad mala." Graceful slave dancers and flute players provided entertainment during dinner. Latin II students presented a clever skit, "Justitia Omnibus," which portrayed a court of the gods. The advanced Latin class contributed to the program with a version of the mythological story of Atalanta. The grand finale of the evening was the judging of the sophomores' original costumes and the presentations of awards.

The Van Wert High School choir, under the direction of Mr. Larry Schaufelberger, presented its annual spring concert on April 2-3. The first half of the program, "The Concert," featured religious music, district contest numbers, and the traditional "Van Wert Alma Mater" and "Madame Jeanette." Soloists in the formal segment were Debbie Dull singing "God Help the Poor," Alice Giesy singing "Listen to the Lambs," and Tom Dustman singing "Were You There."

During the intermission Lynette Conn, Jane Branfield, Harriet Schaadt, and Molly Martin danced the Charleston as Karen Synder accompanied them on the piano.

A medley of songs from the "Roaring 20's" comprised the second portion of the concert. The choir members, dressed in the fashion of that era, sang many familiar tunes written by such "greats" as Al Jolson, Irving Berlin, Richard Rogers, and Cole Porter. Several solos, duets and ensembles helped recreate the spirit of this wild and exciting time. Soloists were Linda Wilson, "I'm Just Wild About Harry;" and Bob Lynch, "I'll See You Again." Singing duets were Joyce Firestone and Dave Turner, and Kathy Warden and Ron Poling, "My Heart Stood Still," Debbie Dull and Shirley Burley, "Ain't We Got Fun"; and Judy Stewart and Terry Pontius, "You Do Something to Me." Ensembles included the Boy's Quartet, Dave Mosier, Bruce Foote, Paul Dunn and Pat Stanley singing "California Here I Come;" and Kerry Klutka, Bev Camp and Sandy Willman singing "Sweet Georgia Brown." Harriet Schaadt accompanied the choir.

The Van Wert High School symphonic band entertained the audience at the Spring Concert

Spring Band Concert Is a Success

The Van Wert High School concert band, under the direction of Mr. Jay Hall, presented its annual spring concert on May 7th. The program consisted of a variety of pieces, including: "Symphony No. 3 for Symphonic Band", "Days of Glory", "Dawn Breaks at a Shinto Shrine", "Helbrides Suite", "Valdres", "Overture from 'Funny Girl'", "The Girl I Left Behind", and "America the Beautiful."

As a special attraction, the band featured a newly organized dance band consisting of thirteen band members plus Mr. Hall and Mr. Carney. They played two modern selections, "The Girl from Ipanema", and "Wives and Lovers."

Since it was their last concert performance, the senior band members were recognized for their four years of service in the band.

The 1965

As the big moment draws nigh, last minute clean-up operations make everything ready

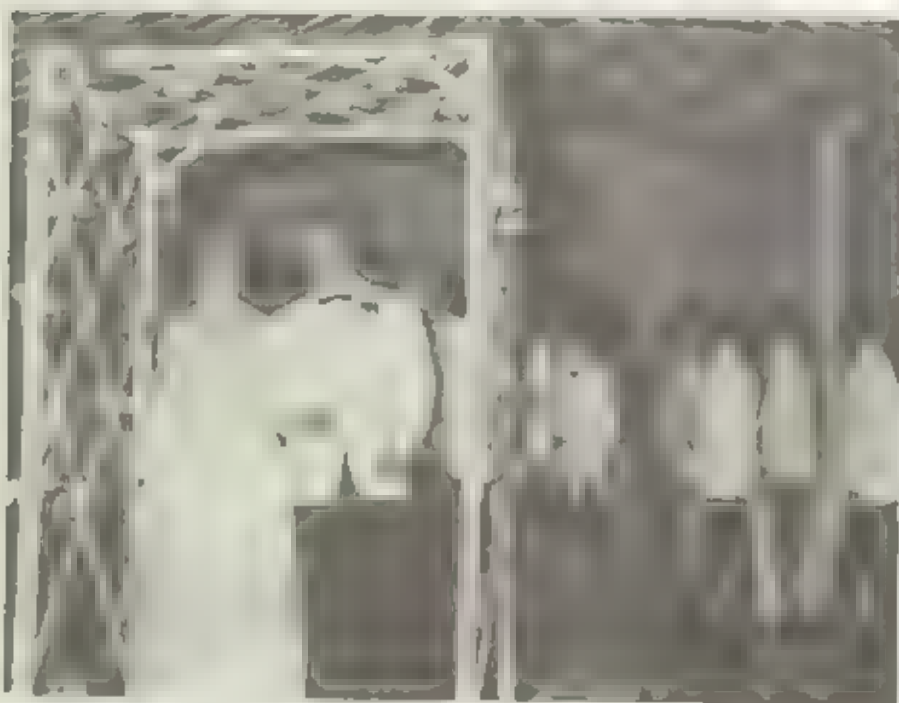

Mint green, pale yellow, and white crepe paper streamers transformed the Lincoln Gym into an enchanting wonderland for a few magic hours on May 14th. The setting, a romantic Southern plantation garden, perfectly portrayed the theme, "Moonlight and Roses." The dance band played from the veranda of the ante-bellum mansion. To one side was a Mississippi River showboat, and to the other, a picturesque patio; the center of the floor featured a white picket rose trellace. The gym displayed the result of weeks of careful planning and long nights of intensive work by the junior class.

In addition to the dance, other activities were provided. Several open houses preceded the dance. After prom was a planned program for those wishing to make a night of it. Free lunch and bowling were available until three o'clock at the Olympic Recreation, and breakfast was served at William's I.G.A. Restaurant until four o'clock. As dawn was breaking, many exhausted but happy juniors and seniors made their way home for a long day's sleep.

Van Wert county seniors and their dates enjoy themselves immensely at the dance put on for them annually by the local lodge.

Couples dance to the romantic music of the band

Each year, the Van Wert Elks' Lodge honors the seniors of the Van Wert area schools by sponsoring a Senior Dance.

The parents of this year's seniors really went all-out by building a beautiful band-shell decorated with pink and white crepe paper and large pink rosettes. To the right of the shell, they created a garden of flowers featuring a water fountain. A large cluster of balloons surrounded the revolving ball, suspended over the center of the dance floor. It was an inspiring setting for the last formal social function for the seniors of 1965.

Outstanding Underclassmen

Cheryl Agler, vice president of Student Council, presents the junior citizen of the year award to Kim Davis. Other citizens of the year were Lyda Morgan, sophomore, and Becky Dull, freshman.

As the school year closed, deserving underclassmen received recognition for their achievements in various fields. In addition to those awards pictured, Van Wert delegates to Buckeye Girl's State and Boy's State were announced. Those to attend Girl's State are: Cheryl Agler, Susan Baldwin, Nikki Elhot, Harriet Schaad and Marilyn Tihker. Delegates to Boy's State are: Brian Burnes, Phil Duncan and John McVay.

Donna Dasher, on behalf of the Junior Y Teens, presents a plaque and cougar head to Mr. Livingston and the V-Club.

Tom Dustman receives the Odd Fellow award, a trip to the United Nations.

ORGANIZATIONS

The extra-curricular program of Van Wert High School provides an outlet for the various interests of the students. Since the formal curriculum is, by necessity, rigid, it cannot be as flexible as desirable in the development of a student's interests. Whether the field is language, science, athletics, music, community service, religion, drama and speech, or any other, there is a club designed to attain the ideals for which the student is searching. A wealth of experience and understanding awaits those who are members of clubs. Cooperation between people, and tolerance of different, distinct ideas are among the many qualities which comprise the mature adult.

Composing the Student Council are the elected representatives from each of the four classes. The Council co-operates with the administration in solving problems which may arise. Mr. Hendricks and Mr. Johnson serve as advisors for the Student Council, which meets twice a month.

The Student Council has sponsored various activities and projects this year. Included are the annual Turkey Wobble, the Basketball Queen Dance, Locker Clean-Up Week, and Parents' Night, which honors the parents of football players, basketball players, and cheerleaders. To raise money to finance the many activities, the Student Council has sponsored a Freshman Recognition Dance, sold shakers, and operated a paperback book store. It co-sponsored the Citizen-of-the-Month with the Scarlet Quill and is in charge of the organization of student elections. This year, the Student Council also presided at school assemblies and managed the underclassman picture sales.

Scholarship Team

Every year, the State of Ohio sponsors a series of scholarship tests designed to recognize the gifted students in 21 subjects. On March 18, the preliminary tests were administered to the top twenty-five percent of the classes to determine the finalists. On May 1, two busloads of hopeful but somewhat apprehensive students traveled to Defiance College to take the district-state finals. All the work that went into preparation was resolved here.

Marsha Fogt, Griff Bilbro, and David Bashore were students who placed in state scholarship competition. Not pictured: Stuart White, first in the state.

Y-Teen members wash car windows as a service project

Senior Y-Teens is an organization for junior and senior girls to help them develop their personal and social lives. By participating, the girls become better Christian women.

During the year several people addressed the group; among these Miss Lown spoke about her trip to the New York World's Fair and Mrs. Rausche explained various blends of yarns and patterns of knitting.

In addition to the regular monthly meetings, the Y-Teens sponsored a successful Valentines Dance, participated in "The Hanging of the Greens" at the Y.W.C.A. in December, held a spring tea for the mothers, planned the Easter Assembly with the Junior Y-Teens, played area clubs in sport activities, participated in a free car wash, and attended the annual spring membership banquet.

The Junior Y-Teens, composed of freshman and sophomore girls, strives to achieve three major goals: to grow as persons, to grow in friendship with all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

With Mrs. Tokar as advisor, the Y-Teens hold a meeting each month. Highlighting this year's events were the "Hanging of the Greens", a bake sale, a fashion show, and the county-wide Y-Teens banquet. The year was concluded with the installation of the new officers.

What's so interesting up there, boys?

The Junior-Senior Hi-Y is a club open to any junior or senior boy willing to uphold the Christian standards set up in the international Hi-Y charter. The aim of the Hi-Y is to be of service to the school and community. It is responsible for presenting the Thanksgiving Assembly to the student body.

To raise money for the club projects, every member diligently works during football and basketball seasons at their concession stand. This year, the Hi-Y sponsored two teams in the Y.M.C.A. high school basketball league. One of the teams, the Trojans, won the league championship with an undefeated record for the season. On May 8, the Hi-Y spent the day at the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago as a reward for hard work.

The Hi-Y had a candy sale last Fall to raise money for its projects. The Hi-Y also sponsored two teams in the Y.M.C.A. basketball league.

Many interesting programs were presented at the monthly meetings. Two of the programs were presented by V.W.H.S. students. Stuart White and Erik Notthoff provided an enjoyable program about Erik's native country, Germany. Larry Zielke at another meeting showed slides about his trip to the United Nations.

Le Cercle de Francais

The French Club, Le Cercle de Français, is an organization designed to stimulate an interest in the language and to learn about the French people. Members include those students having two or more years of the language.

Meetings this year included the annual Christmas Carol sing with the Latin students, slides of France shown by Mrs. Josetta Brown, a native of France, and a spring punch party.

New this year are club pins in the shape of fleur de lis, an ancient symbol of the kings of France.

The Science Club, created to stimulate interest in the varied fields of science, is an important part of the background of the science-minded students. The members are encouraged to conduct scientific experiments and discussion to implement their background.

During the past school year, the members widened their knowledge of science through informative lectures and movies. Dr. Hughes, a pathologist at the Van Wert County Hospital, addressed the club concerning his career, and Dr. Bilbro discussed cancer—its method of discovery and treatment. In April, the Science Club took its field trip to Chicago to visit the Science and Industry Museum.

Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of girls and boys studying homemaking in high schools. As an integral part of the homemaking program, Future Homemakers of America provides opportunities for students to enjoy additional experiences in planning and conducting activities related to homemaking. The goal of this club is to create a wholesome atmosphere for home living.

During the past months the members of Future Homemakers of America have visited the Van Wert County Home, listened to a lecture by a home economist, and prepared a foreign-dish dinner. In addition to these activities they have a new display in the home economics window every month in order to develop the national club objectives.

Dramatics and forensics are the fields of interest for those members of the Speech and Drama Club. In the fall, the all-school play, "Dino," was produced as an activity of the club. Those who were on the crews or cast were eligible to join the National Thespians. In the spring, the club produced the radio play, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," broadcast over WERT. In the area of forensics, practice in extemporaneous speaking, dramatic declamation, humorous declamation, oratory, and debate was a valuable asset to all members. Mr. Waldron served as advisor for the Speech and Drama Club and also served as director for both the school play and the radio play.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America is a club for any student going into the field of education. During the year, the members visit elementary schools to observe several teachers in action. They also visited Bowling Green and Ohio State University to view the campuses and to learn about the teaching profession.

The club also had many fine speakers during the yearly programs. They spoke on such subjects as the advantages and disadvantages of teaching the qualities a person must possess to become a teacher, and the reasons for becoming a teacher.

The year was completed with an election of officers and a picnic.

Future Nurses of America

The purpose of the Future Nurses is to acquaint its members with the various fields of nursing and the requirements for each field. This year the club viewed a film and was instructed concerning the educational requirements of different schools. At a joint meeting with members of the Jr. High, the club was given a lecture by two members of our local hospital staff. Preparations were also made for members of the club to join the Candy Stripper Program. There worthwhile programs were made available to us by our advisor, Mrs. Maxen.

Junior Rotarians

Each year, the Honors' Committee selects a group of senior boys to be Junior Rotarians. Two Junior Rotarians attend the Rotary Club meeting every Monday noon for a month. Each Junior Rotarian is given a chance to participate in discussion with the outstanding businessmen of our town. After lunch is served a Rotarian reports on the coming events followed by a resume' of school activities by a Junior Rotarian. Both the Junior Rotarians and the Rotarian members feel that this program is an excellent opportunity for the students and businessmen to meet on mutual ground.

The Scarlet Quill, in its twenty-fourth year of publication, initiated several changes from past procedure. In 1964-65, the Quill published seven issues instead of the usual six. The seventh issue was the annual senior issue containing the class wills, prophecies, and future plans. Putting on a new face, the Quill changed its traditional, plain nameplate for a more eye-catching one. A new feature appeared in several issues. In this feature, two imaginary professors, Prof. Ver. E. Brite and Prof. N. Cy Clopedia, answered intellectual questions by the readers.

Putting out a school paper has many moments of anxiety and frustration and the Scarlet Quill is not an exception. Minor mishaps such as overdue assignments, changes in schedule after it is too late to stop the presses (18 days of school??) and other little catastrophes were common in every issue. However, life was made exciting by several major disasters. In the first issue, the editor's column mentioned a "lovely new nameplate" which arrived just one day too late to appear, creating an atmosphere of mystery. In a later issue, the editor misplaced an envelope of proofs producing mass confusion. And then there was the "Case of Lost Wills and Testaments" largely responsible for the late publication of the last issue.

In spite of all that, the Quill had a tremendously successful year with high single sales and general approval from its readers.

On October 8th, the band journeyed to Bowling Green State University to take part in the half time show with other high school bands.

The formal concert season opened with the annual Winter Band Concert on February 5th. The band then went into preparation for the contests earning a I at district and a III at the State contest. The band completed its successful season with the annual spring concert.

Besides their formal appearances, the band performed for all home basketball games, Veterans Day assembly, solo & ensemble contest, Baccalaureate, Commencement, Western Ohio Beauty Pageant Parade, Memorial Day Parade, Ice Cream Social and Flag Day ceremony.

One of the highlights of the year was the opportunity to host the overnight stay of the Ohio State University Concert Band.

Throughout the year the choir sang for school assemblies and the graduation exercises. Countless performances were given all over the city of Van Wert during the Christmas season. The highlight of the year was the annual spring concert, "An Evening With the Concert Choir," in which the choir performed a variety of songs from the Roaring Twenties. The choir distinguished itself by receiving a superior rating in the state contest. Several members of the choir also won superior and excellent ratings in the district and state solo contests.

SPORTS

One does not know his capabilities until he tests them. The world of sports is an excellent opportunity for the individual to put himself in honest competition with other people. The wide range of sports in which students of Van Wert High School participate extends from fall football to the spring sports. Competition, hard work, and rigorous training all develop the participant's character because these are elements with which an adult must contend in attaining anything. Thus, sports, while providing enjoyment to which many spectators thrill, gradually mature the high school student.

Varsity Football

The 1964 season will be long remembered by Cougar players and fans. It was a season that contained moments of jubilation and enthusiastic optimism, and also moments of disappointment and disbelief. The Cougars handily won their first four games, taking each encounter by impressive scores. But the momentum of the Cougars dissipated when at Kenton the Cougars lost a close one, 20 to 16. The following week the Cougars dropped a well-played Homecoming game to Shawnee by four points

Perhaps there is one other thing which will be remembered even longer about this season—injuries. The list of crippled Cougars began with Tony Steinmetz, who broke his hand in the Bryan Game. The list steadily increased throughout the season right down to the last game when Scot Niswonger, Bill Feigert, and Jerry Walters were side lined. Others who were injured and missed action are Mike Ralston, Tom Tindall, Mike Baltzell, Vaughn Ferrell, Don Poling, and even Coach Coon

The season was not a winning one but Cougar fans enjoyed many minutes of superb football. Tom Tindall, Bruce Butler, Vaughn Ferrell, Dave Price, and Chuck Steele, with the help of their teammates, earned mention on the All-League Team

The students of V.W.H.S. and citizens of Van Wert are appreciative of the work that the players, coaches and managers put forth this season.

Football Lettermen

Each year, those boys who participate in a required number of quarters of varsity football receive a letter. This letter distinguishes the player as an outstanding member of the varsity squad. Varsity Basketball 1965

The 1964-65 basketball season contained many moments of anxiety for Cougar fans, but ended in a blaze of success. The team began the season facing one of the most difficult schedules ever assembled for a Cougar quintet. Coach Robert Chuey shuffled the line-up almost every game, searching for his best combination. At the Celina game, the last home stand for the Cougars, the team found their best combination as they upset the Bulldogs in a superb display of basketball. The following week, the Cougars dropped a well-played game to the Bellefontaine Chieftains. Cougar cagers and fans were really on the bandwagon as they hit the tournament trail with a walloping impact. The first victims of the "Cinderella" team were the Lima Central Catholic Thunderbirds. The Scarlet and Gray ousted L.C.C. in one of the most thrilling games ever witnessed by Van Wert fans. The Cougars kept on the move and scored their second upset of the tourney by stopping the Celina Bulldogs cold. At the Celina game, the ball team enjoyed the wildest, most enthusiastic crowd of Cougar backers ever assembled. Next, the Cougars faced a tremendous ball team—the Lima Senior Spartans. Our cagers were staunchly supported by the school and entire town. They played great ball but were unable to topple the mighty Spartans. However, on the tourney trail, the Cougars played unbelievable ball and won the respect of school and town alike.

Reserve Basketball

"Our Favorite Martian"

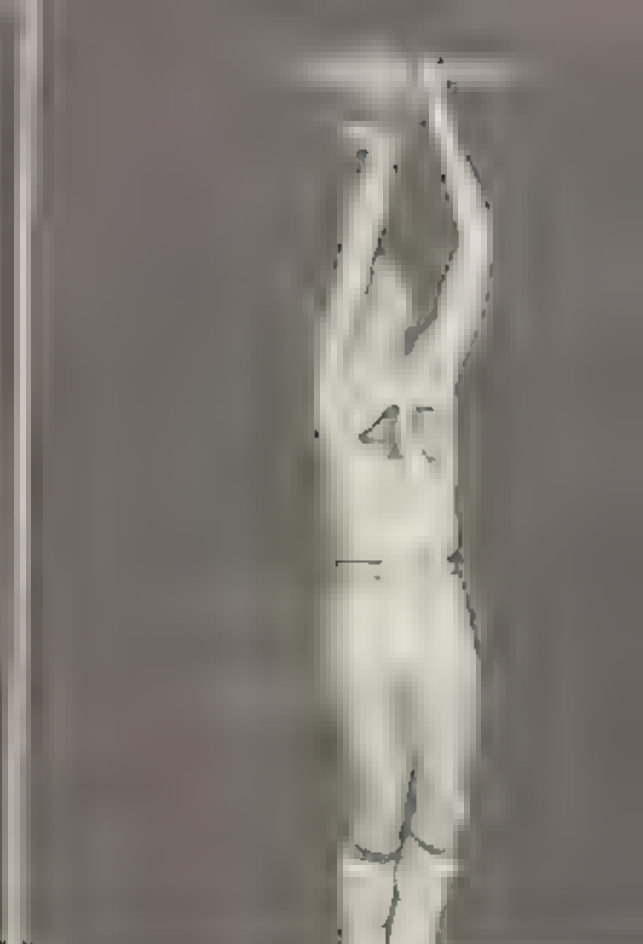

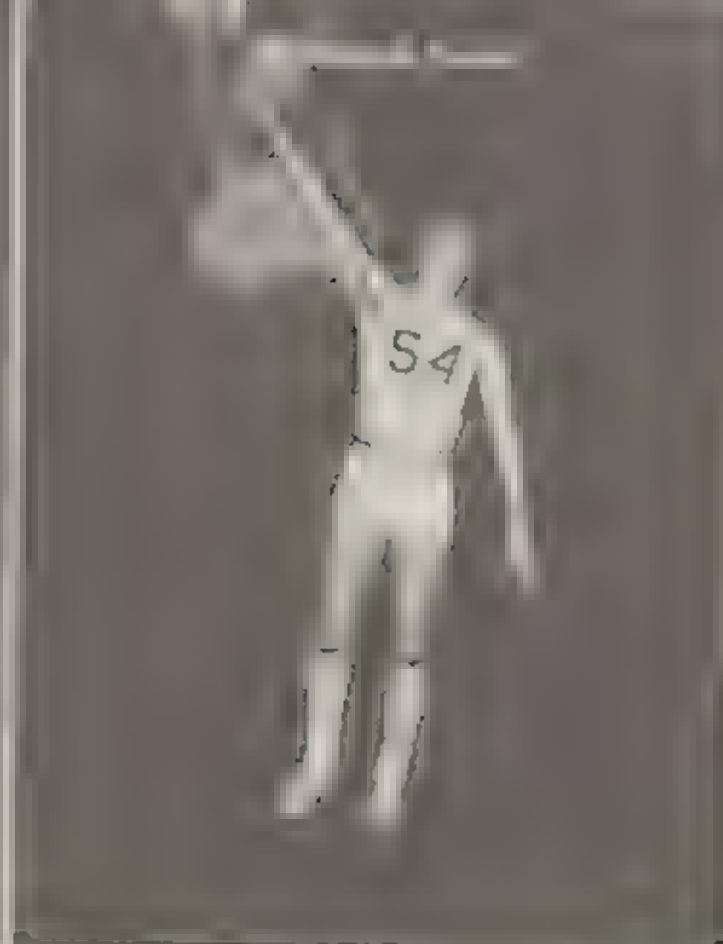

Reserve basketball is the last step before gaining varsity status. Sophomores and juniors generally make-up the squad, although freshmen of outstanding ability sometimes are promoted to membership. By the same token, outstanding reserve players often are "drafted" by the varsity, especially to fill in for injured or ill varsity players.

This year's reserve team was no stranger to change. Coach Jessup lost several key players at mid-season to the varsity. In spite of almost constant revisions of line-up, the team enjoyed a successful season. We believe that these boys will form the nucleus of a highly successful varsity next year.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Six energetic and good-looking girls were chosen to represent Van Wert High School as their 1964-65 Varsity cheerleading squad. During the summer these girls attended cheerleading camp to prepare for their oncoming responsibilities. They created great enthusiasm for football and basketball games by performing comical skits at the pep assemblies and decorating the halls of the school and the blackboards in the study halls with unusual pictures and sayings. Because of the great effort of our teams, these girls had a booming response from the cheering section.

Three of these girls were Seniors and have said good-by to their cheering days at V.W.H.S. They had to work hard but they will be rewarded by the many wonderful memories of their cheerleading experiences.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The High school is a gradual maturing period for the teenager. As the student progresses from the rank of a freshman to that of a senior, the surrounding influences and experiences continuously develop the character of the individual into one of a mature person. Thus, the underclassman represents the gradually developing adult. The first years of high school are an adjusting period, but anyone will find them truly enjoyable.

As freshmen we took the first of four important steps in high schools. Since we are laying the first block of our foundation, we must remember that we are constructing our future. Consequently, we must always strive to build our future with good material.

Although we were momentarily awed by the spirited high school life, we soon got into the "swing of things" and took our place as the class of 1968. The varsity football and basketball games held special excitement for us, because we were now part of the student body. The fight songs and alma mater are now memorized.

We freshmen, as a part of the school also, elected Rebecca Dull as attendant to both the homecoming and basketball queens. Debby Ferrell and Rebecca Dull were chosen from our class as reserve cheerleaders. As elected representatives of the freshman class on the Student Council, Ted Jones, Kathy Baltzell, Elizabeth Morgan, Dave Schumn, and Rebecca Dull took part in the school student government.

Regretfully, our year as freshmen has been completed. It was full of memories; but, in the remaining years of high school, we can fulfill those hopes and dreams we had as freshmen.

Sophomores

President—Mike Ralston

Vice President—Donna Cobb

Secretary—Paula Thomas

Treasurer—Kathy Davis

We returned to VWHS as sophomores this fall eagerly anticipating a year of work and also long awaited play. Because the cheers and fight song were now an indelible part of our memory, we were able to participate more fully at the football and basketball games. It is reassuring to know that we are no longer considered the "greenies" of Van Wert High School.

The sophomore class was represented in school activities in many areas. Our choice for homecoming attendant this year was Kathy Davis. In addition to this, Rhonda Schwartz was selected as attendant to the basketball queen. The sophomore class was well represented on the reserve cheerleading squad by Kathy Drees, Cathy Foreman, and Susan Fry. Since student government is an important part of the school, we selected our student representatives on the Student Council with prudent judgment in an effort to obtain the best possible representation. Our representatives are Jerry Walters, Kathe Gunsett, Danny Gunsett, Donna Cobb, Lyda Morgon, and Mike Ralston.

The year has passed quickly. Behind us are many happy memories. Most of us have reached "sweet sixteen" and have acquired, as a benefit, a driver's license. Although a few of us still harbor mixed emotions of the past year, all of us look forward to the junior year with restrained eagerness.

Juniors

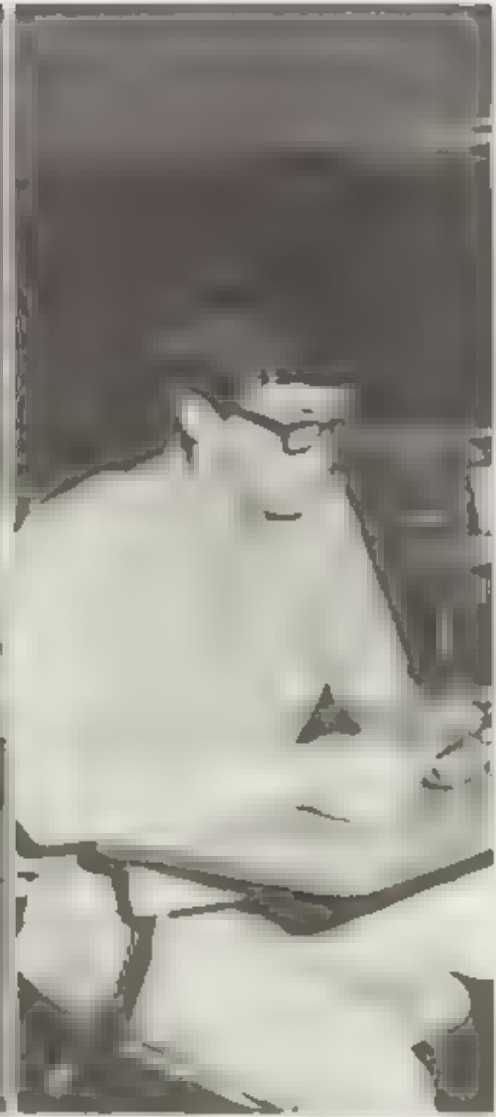

President—Kim Davis

Vice President—Chuck Steel

Secretary—Janet Bushong

Treasurer—Harry McKeddie

One hundred ninety-four of us eager to start the new year as juniors, found ourselves with a new curriculum and an increasing number of activities. We have been busy making preparations for the Junior-Senior Prom by selling candy and ice cream after school and at the basketball games, sponsoring coat-checks, bakesales, penny lunches, and car washes.

We elected Kathy Kaduk as our homecoming attendant. Kathy Kaduk, Joie Rogers, and Kathy Wilhelm were chosen varsity cheerleaders and Karen Vandersommen was chosen as reserve cheerleader. Representing us on student council were Cheryl Agler, Nikki Elliott, Susan Baldwin and Phil Duncan. Several of our boys played varsity football, baseball, basketball and track. Many of us participated in the choir and band. Connie Klausung and Marsha Ries represented the junior class as majorettes. Now after a full and rewarding year, we see our dreams of being seniors about to become a reality.

SENIORS

The senior is the "king of the jungle" in the high school to many people. The senior year is the most enjoyable of all high school years, for the senior readily uses his influence to advantage. All underclassmen eagerly await the day when they, too, will share in the benefits of seniority. The fun-loving senior, however, represents more than just the "king of the jungle." He is the product of the many years of training in the Van Wert High School. When he graduates, he will be accepted in our society as an adult. Consequently, the many influences of high school must create an adult. The senior is the finished product in the aging process known as growing up.
